DISTANCE LEARNING
@ VIRGINIA’S COMMUNITY COLLEGES

SCEHV | March 19th, 2012
Dr. Susan Wood | Vice Chancellor, Academic Services & Research | Virginia Community College System
804.819.4972 | swood@vccs.edu

http://www.flickr.com/photos/azmathblack/3858224057/
Recognized leader in post-secondary distance learning delivery
130,000+ distance learning students
Modern Traditional Students
Requiring flexible online degree opportunities to meet life demands
Returning Students
Requiring convenient, cost-effective solution to complete degree and comprehensive services for assessment of prior learning
VCCS Percent Distance Learning of Annual Headcount and FTES

- Headcount:
  - 2003-04: 22.4%
  - 2004-05: 25.0%
  - 2005-06: 27.6%
  - 2006-07: 30.7%
  - 2007-08: 32.0%
  - 2008-09: 38.5%
  - 2009-10: 43.7%
  - 2010-11: 47.2%
  - 2011-12 Mid-Term: 49.7%

- FTES:
  - 2003-04: 10.7%
  - 2004-05: 12.5%
  - 2005-06: 13.6%
  - 2006-07: 16.3%
  - 2007-08: 17.2%
  - 2008-09: 20.5%
  - 2009-10: 23.1%
  - 2010-11: 25.0%
  - 2011-12 Mid-Term: 26.7%
50% of annual headcount in distance learning

40% Fall 2011 students in at least 1 distance learning course

13% students whose courses are fully online
80 fully online degree programs
Veterinary Technology Program
(AAS in Veterinary Technology)
Blue Ridge CC delivering to
- Tidewater C
- Germanna CC
- John Tyler CC
- Virginia Western CC

Appalachian Tri-College Nursing Program
(AAS in Nursing)
- Virginia Highlands CC
- Southwest Virginia CC
- Mountain Empire CC
VCCS/ODU PARTNERSHIP
15 years
40 learning centers
NVCC

10 colleges
110 shared courses
629 online students
Amplifies impact of distance learning by integrating virtual web spaces into online, hybrid, and face-to-face courses for both synchronous and asynchronous interactions.
Thank you