College Nights in Virginia | October 2020 – April 2021

ECMC (Educational Credit Management Corporation) has sponsored College Nights in Virginia every year since 2007. Participating locations across the Commonwealth provide students and families opportunities to learn about planning and paying for college. A variety of postsecondary topics are covered, including: 1) why college is important; 2) choosing the right college; 3) paying for college; and 4) scholarship searches and scams. Events are open to the public. For more information and a list of locations, visit collegenights.org.

Virginia College Application Week | November 16 - 20, 2020

College Application Week is part of a national initiative designed to increase the number of first-generation and low-income students pursuing a college degree or other higher education credential. Participating students are encouraged to submit at least one college application during the Week. In Virginia, the Secretary of Education's office, State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV), ECMC, and the Council of Independent Colleges in Virginia (CICV) have joined with counselors and volunteers at select high schools across the state to coordinate a week that provides hands-on college application assistance and resources, including college application fee waivers and informational webinars. For more information and a list of participating sites, visit schev.edu/123Go.

PAY

Super FAFSA Project Virginia | October 15, 2020 – December 31, 2020

Super FAFSA Project Virginia is an annual statewide initiative designed to increase completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) throughout the Commonwealth. ECMC and SCHEV partner with select Virginia high schools to host events at which high school seniors and their families receive hands-on assistance completing the FAFSA. Additionally, families and counselors receive valuable information through webinars and downloadable materials. For more information and a list of participating sites, visit schev.edu/123Go.

Go!

Virginia Decision Days | On or around May 1, 2020

Decision Day is part of a national effort to support and celebrate student postsecondary decisions and provide reminders about upcoming deadlines and responsibilities. For more information and ideas, visit schev.edu/123Go.
